College Opens Conference Against Coalinga

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 3 — Porterville college opens its football conference season Saturday night at College stadium against a loaded Coalinga Falcon club that is rated as better than even money to retain the conference championship won last year.

Porterville Pirate Coach Harry Kane, with an impressive 27 - 6 win over Hartnell and an equally impressive 7 - 7 tie with Los Angeles Harbor, has eight men from his slim 26-man squad suffering from the flu bug, but if he can get his boys back in good health by Saturday night, he is conceeding nothing to the visiting Falcons.

Kickoff for the college tussle is set for 8 p.m., with a battle of good lines predicted, and with a constant threat from breakaway backs on both teams.

High School Coach Carl Elder, with a record of two losses, goes to Delano Friday night, still on the short end of the odds, what with 16 men out of a varsity squad of 36 on the sick list.

FAIR FINANCIAL REPORT SHOWS CONTINUED GAINS FOR COMMUNITY EVENT

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 3 — Porterville's community fair and junior livestock show made further financial gains as a result of the 1957 fair, however, directors actually spent a little more than they took in and the total fair income was $535.09 below 1956.

In a statement just completed by Alfred W. Browning, public accountant, for the period August 16, 1956 through August 19, 1957, receipts totalled $10,155.29 while disbursements amounted to $11,005.48.

But included in disbursements is $4,400.06 for capital outlay and repairs, a figure that covers cost for construction of a new office building on the fair grounds and the installation of permanent livestock scales.

In addition, final payment of $2,000 was made to Violet Carpenter and Arthur Carpenter to retire a $6,000 note that directors signed in order to keep the fair alive after a substantial loss was suffered on the 1950 fair. No interest was charged on the loan.

On the 1957 financial statement, a bank balance of $971.58 is shown; a total of $1,500 is being carried as a deficit by directors.

Actually, fair directors spent about $850 more than they took in

FAIR BOARD MEETS

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 3 — Directors of the Porterville fair will meet tonight, 7 o'clock, at Gang Sue's, to officially hear a financial report on the 1957 fair, to set dates for the 1958 fair and to conduct other necessary business.

MIDGETS PLAN ACTION ALONG AVENUE

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 3 — Midgets — ¼-midget racing cars to be exact — are the topic of conversation in some quarters along the avenue, and it is likely that Porterville people will see some of their sons — and possibly daughters too — driving these midgets in competition.

Right now a ¼-midget track, measuring one-twentieth of a mile, is becoming constructed on property donated by P. J. Divizich north of the Rockwell plant, and, when pit facilities and concession stands have been completed, a group of midget racers from Fresno are expected for an exhibition meet.

Drivers of the midgets must be 12 years of age, or under, the flashy, fibre-glass midget cars are powered with a two-horse Continental engine turning a maximum tac of 8,000 RPMs under no load. The cars are built on steel frames, they drive off one rear wheel and are wide and low for stability.

A Quarter Midget Racing association is now being formed in Porterville and, with donated labor, the track is being built on Sundays. (If you are interested, your time and effort will be gratefully accepted next Sunday afternoon.)

Guiding lights now are Art Car-

SUCCESS AREA RANCHERS WILL BE ALLOWED TO USE LAND IN RESERVOIR SITE

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 3 — The status of land acquisition for the Terminus and Success dam and reservoir sites was outlined in a statement today by Colonel A. E. McCollam, the district engineer for the Army Engineers in Sacramento, who said that, because of the delay in construction at both sites, former property owners except those owning lands required for the relocated state highway at the Success project, will be permitted to occupy and continue to use land already acquired by the government.

"It appears", he said, "that there will be no need for these people to vacate at least until near the end of this fiscal year, which is the coming June 30th. This will give them more time to relocate. Detailed separate agreements as appropriate will be made with the individual former owners in the near future", he added.

At this time, the engineers indicated that about half of the ownerships on the Success site have been acquired, and only enough room to drill a well has been acquired at the Terminus site.

Except for negotiations with former owners, no further real estate activity is expected until Congress is able to act on civil works bills which contain authority to expend funds necessary to complete the projects.

OUR TOWN

By Gardner (Bud Wheeler

A QUICK GLANCE AT THE CALENDAR and the noise of cannonading in the general easterly direction from our town indicates to the knowing ones that deer season is upon us. This is the season when our local nimrods oil up their squirrel guns and hie to the woods for the winter supply of meat. By actual count on our IBM machine, the hunters outnumber the deer in the area about 20 to 1, and the deer are threatening to move out because of the over-crowded conditions.

IT TAKES A LOT OF COURAGE and stamina to tramp through the mountains on a weekend hunt. With so many guns blasting about, someone is liable to get hurt. In fact, every once in awhile a deer even gets shot, but this is usually attributed to carelessness on the deer's part. If a hunter worked as hard at his job as he does hunting, he would demand double the pay, regardless of what it is. We would call this a labor of love; usually unrequited.

THERE ARE MANY WAYS TO COOK VENISON and the beauty is, that it all comes out about the same. We were recently invited to a venison steak fry, and, after being treated to a play by play account of the hunt by mine host, got down to the business of eating. We were presented a venison plank steak. The meal was half over before someone pointed out to us that we were inadvertently eating the plank. It was a bit dark. We switched to the venison and after one try, finished up the plank. A properly prepared venison steak can last a normal person weeks, or even months.

THE LIFE OF A LYRIC writer of modern songs must be nightmarish indeed. These wayward word smiths have only a very limited set of words with which to present their deathless messages of romance. Words such as love, above, June, moon, letters, etc. From the sound of some of the songs, they must shake these words up in an old hat and string them together as they fall out.

WHEN WE MAKE CAUSTIC REMARKS about the lack of originality in these undying lyrics, certain members of our household look pityingly at us and make sordid remarks about horse and buggy days and one thing and another. The other night we had the last laugh. We were invited to listen to something real new and cool. Two ditties entitled, "Love Letters In the Sand", and "Gonna Sit Right Down and Write Myself a Letter". We got the last laugh because we remember those from our racoon coat and pennant waving days. Apparently, the lyric writers have finally run out of rhymns and are disinterring old vintage favorites. They sound about as bad as ever.

WE SOMETIMES SCOFF AT THE WOMEN'S CLUB, which is apt to cause a minor collision around our house. This time we are not scoffing, because next Monday they are having Mildred Younger as their guest speaker, and she is about one of the smartest young ladies we can think of in political circles. Our congratulations to the Club.

New Chemical Stops Potato Sprouting

DAVIS, Oct. 3.—A new chemical, maleic hydrazide, when applied to potato foliage before harvest, prevents sprouting of potatoes, yet does not reduce market qualities. The chemical is expected to be effective in helping growers hold over part of their crop, either in the ground or in storage, in order to hit favorable markets.

THE OLD DAYS

MAY, 1900

VISALIA—It has been just nine years since attention was called to the desireability of harnessing the Kaweah to furnish power to Visalia and other towns in Tulare county, but at that time there was considerable doubt about the practicability of such a scheme. But there have been such strides in electricity since then that power can now be transmitted by known methods for a distance of 500 miles. The world is moving rapidly.

PORTERVILLE—There is nothing small about the Visalia board of trade. They have invited President McKinley to be their guest on a camping trip to Giant Forest, Mt. Whitney, Sequoia park and Kings river canyon. Although the president has written that he cannot accept the invitation, he is coming to the coast and an effort will be made to take him on a short trip to Giant Forest. This trip could be made from Visalia and back in five days.

ADVERTISING — "A heart as sturdy as an oak." If the heart is to be sturdy and the nerves strong, the blood must be rich and pure. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes hearts sturdy because it makes good blood. It gives strength and courage.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A new regulation issued by the Secretary of the Interior requires permits for the pasturing of horses and cattle on the forest reservations. The object is to prevent overstocking of the mountain pastures.

We Only Heard

By BILL RODGERS

SHORT SHOTS: Chamber of commerce directional sign on Main street was upside down and pointing in the wrong direction as of Wednesday morning; probably commemorating the chamber's handling of the proposed Green River ordinance . . . Then there is the case of the county road on which one crew barely finished a brand new, white center line in time for another crew to tear up the entire road . . . And, after summer had gone, work on curbs and gutters on a high school parking lot got underway just as school started, to add confusion to confusion . . . But who are we to talk? We waited all summer for the fall rush, and now that it is here, we are in the middle of rearranging our office space and will probably stay in the middle for some little time to come.

IT'S PAST time that a fence was placed around the Porterville State hospital. If a fence is the wrong psychological approach for patients, then the hospital administration should come up with the right approach to prevent patients from walking out . . . Of course, we don't seem to get into any psychological problems when we put a fence around our own yard to protect our own children . . . In the case of the hospital, it would appear that a little protection is in order on both sides of the fence.

FIRST REFERRING to the title of this column, we herewith state that some of the directors of the Southern Tulare County Sportsmen's association are beginning to suspect that a mistake was made when a good chunk of the association's money was invested in a "clubhouse" and shooting range just off the south slope of Rocky hill. The project is still not completed; it is questionable what the sportsmen will have, other than trouble, if the project is completed . . . Certainly, it is difficult to see how this project helps much in the preservation and propagation of fish and game —the major item in the sportsmen's program.

WE THE PEOPLE

Statements made in this column do not necessarily reflect the editorial opinion of The Farm Tribune.

Camp Nelson
Sept. 26, 1957

Dear Bill:

All spring and summer the bear and deer at Camp Nelson entertain the tourists and natives with their presence and pranks. We feel akin to them because they mean so much to our children.

The youngsters, as well as adults, go down to the bear pit to watch them feed in the evening. It is a regular event, but when the deer and bear seasons roll around, the archers have a few days to display their skills before the regular season opens.

Some of these more daring hunters come to the eating grounds and kill the gentle cubs and the old bears, and then display them at the store to the disgust of everyone.

The great hunters also pick off the gentle bucks that graze around our summer homes.

This is a posted area; but the signs are torn down and hunting goes on. This is a regular gripe every fall.

Roswell E. Martin.

Johnson Grass Control Tested

TULARE, Oct. 3.—Interested farmers are invited to attend a field meeting, October 8, 1:30 p. m., a mile north of Waukena at a point one-half mile north of intersection of Road 28 and Avenue 199 where results of experiments in various application rates of dalapon for control of Johnson grass will be shown. In charge of the meeting, and of the experiment, are John Miller and Jim Wilkerson, weed specialists from the Shafter Experiment station.

From Daybell Nursery By John

If you're home slaving while the old man's hunting and the younguns are at school, then pile your work in the back closet and come on down to DAYBELL'S. These nice spring days won't last for long and if you keep on working so hard you won't last so good either. One thing for sure, the house work will still be there after you're long gone.

This is the season for planting many things — lawns, bulbs, seeds, bedding plants and anything that comes in a can. This doesn't include pork and beans or tomato soup, just plants, trees, and "them big tall things with the purple flowers" . . . whatever they are.

This weekend from Thursday through Sunday, we're having our annual fall sale. This ties in with green tag days and the bargains are almost colossal — Steer manure a dollar a poke, roses one buck each, pansies 45c a dozen, shade trees at $2.75 each, and camellias of questionable origin, from $1.00 up. Just to make sure you're getting your money's worth, we are giving away free ranunculus bulbs. These don't cost you one dime, just walk in and stand on some clerk's foot 'til you get his attention, then ask for them.

Even though the weather is cooling down, water occasionally, giving the shrubs and trees a good, deep soaking. Lawns of Bermuda will stay green longer if fertilized and watered right through the fall. Free air and water on "E" Street, north of Olive.

INTERNATIONAL LETTER WRITING WEEK

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 3.—Week of October 6-12 will be observed as International Letter Writing week, it has been announced by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

PARTY LINE

By Linda Earr

Hello. Oh, catching up! On my reading. Newspapers from a two week stack of back accumulation. Busy days like every other one I talk to says they've had. Me? Housecleaning for one thing, then a few club commitments, some correspondence, PTA starting, and the like.

I was reading about the Portervillians that won so many honors at the annual county fair. Donald Jones for one, by dominating the Arabian horse division with all those beautiful specimens that we are privileged to view in his corrals and fenced areas. You know I've been pulling up alongside Grevilla Avenue for years so my growing youngsters (plus me) could gaze at his beauties through the fences. The colts are always a treat. The Dennis dancing pupils have enjoyed them for years too. Evidently honors are still being collected as my husband saw the Jones horse trailers down Bakersfield way.

And I see Alice Hilton and Esther Homer brought home the dahlia prizes. Seems like more citizens from this part of the county would participate with their hobbies, art, crafts, etc. It was a banner year for Mrs. Macomber of Strathmore winning all those ribbons in the floriculture department. Imagine, 26 prizes besides on preserved foods alone! The most blue ribbons I've witnessed by an individual collection belonged to Georgina Lubking of Ducor. It was understandable after passing through her kitchen and casting an eye in the direction of a cupboard shelf lined with freshly canned crabapples.

Going back to the reading I saw in an article written 25 years ago — Oh, come now I'm not that far behind on my newspapers — I mean an article written 25 years ago and republished recently, dated September 22, 1932, tells of Howard and Lawrence Smith's developing a vegetable business by installing kiosks on every road leading into Lindsay where they offered produce they had purchased at the farm. Then it further stated "they have gone into the business on a permanent basis at the corner of Olive and Hockett streets in Porterville." I can't help but wonder if the writer of that article has since followed the growth of that "permanent business" of Smith's Complete Market — and I do mean complete!

Chit-chatted with Mary Dennis of Ducor and learned they had a nice leisurely summer at their new mountain home on Deer Creek above Hot Springs. She says they plan to do further excavating on the grounds to insure the safety of the grandbabies. Once when I was up in that neck-of-the-woods (Hot Springs) I had the privilege of meeting Al Wiseman, the cartoonist of "Dennis The Menace." Now next weekend I'll have the privilege of meeting two other cartoonists but I'll have to find out what characters they draw.

Recently I saw the youngest naturalized Americans in the states. They were little Homer, 3, and Patricia Dunlap, 2, of Lindsay, who became citizens in a Fresno ceremony. German children, they were adopted by Sergeant and Mrs. Dunlap of Lindsay when Homer was two months old and Pat a mere three days old. They had to be in the U.S.A. two years before they could be naturalized.

Heard the other day something new has been added to Bartlett P.T.A. plans. Membership Dinners! They plan to stage two dinners, one for the parents of seventh grade students on October 10, and one for eighth grade parents on October 24. It's to be mainly social, but with a lot of valuable information about Bartlett school.

From what I've heard, you shouldn't miss it. Sounds like a wonderful time to go out for an evening of fun and NO COOKING! — Just in time for National PTA week too! (October 7 - 11).

Had a visit with Velna Beard today; she and Superintendent Howard have moved from School (a street) to Morton street. Just give me time to wade through this back-log and I'll be up on the news. Call any time, I'm never too busy to talk. Bye for now.

WEST OLIVE

Once upon a time: there were two bears — the big papa bear, Main Street, and the little teensey weeney cub, Olive Street — Teensey weeney is growing up. Another new building next to Mel Raub's Automatic Appliance store — methinks it's Hargett's floor covering outfit. or haven't you noticed the name?

Two former dough makers from Sunlite Bakery have taken over the operation of Blevins Union gasatorium, C. C. Galloway and E. Short — out of the dough pan into the grease pit.

Speaking of bakeries, LeRoy Kunert of Cottage Avenue got his finger whacked off in the bread machine Tuesday — "good thing it wasn't my trigger finger" said LeRoy, "I haven't got my buck yet."

Bucks and bucks: Buster Broadhead, Buster's Mufflers, is a hunting gone, so is Byron Wade and party a' packin' in for a look for those four-footed dears.

Important People: Rose Gordon, formerly with Pete's Chili Pups, is now Mrs. Gary Harris; Morris Howeth, Stock Farmacy, busy dishing out vitamin A tablets for cows. It appears as vitamin D in your milk, or didn't you know a cow has four stomachs — simple addition, man — simple.

I wonder why: The high school kids flock to eateries during lunch period instead of using the excellent facilities of school cafeteria? Why George Heard wasn't at the council meeting Tuesday night to oppose a new electrical ordinance? When our supervisors are going to okeh a spot for Bartlett Park and get going on the project?

You are a young old timer if you remember when: Ed Jones first rode a horseless carriage down Main Street; when that brick mansion next to the Varsity was built; when that ballad "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles" was popular.

(One of the very first) An elephant looked down at a mouse and explained, "You're about the puniest, most insignificant object I ever laid eyes on." "I'm not always this little", the mouse squeaked angrily. "I've been sick."

Elsewhere along the avenue: Mayor Les Hamilton was elected vice chairman of the mayors and city councilmen section of the League of California Cities at a recent league meeting.

Seen along the avenue this week: Harold Corbin, former city manager, and Mrs. Corbin; also Clyde Gorman, of the technical liason branch of the army engineers, out of Sacramento.

George Carter has resigned as probation officer to apply for the position of judge of the Porterville Judicial district to fill the unexpired term of the late J. L. Stewart. Other aspirants are Ross Welch, retired game garden, and Bill Hill, attorney. County supervisors will interview applicants and make appointment.

New setup for payment of sales tax, which is now a straight four per cent for all businesses in the county: City Clerk M. L. Grimsley says that merchants will now combine the state and city sales tax and pay it to the state board of equalization under a plan adopted by the county and the city. Retailers will be sent detailed explanation in a letter that is forthcoming from the state board of equalization.

In front of a crowd that generally opposed a proposed Green River ordinance, city councilmen put on the damper by tabling this proposed ordinance Tuesday night; councilmen will explore other means of controlling "fly-by-night" solicitors.

Councilmen heard a report that escrow for purchase of property for a Porterville armory will be cleared in about 90 days.

Low bidder on a new section for the Porterville library is Robert C. Behunian, of Porterville, with a base bid of $18,301. Five bids received are now being checked.

FINS FUR FEATHERS

By Phil The Forester

The fish and game budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1959, as submitted by the department of fish and game to the fish and game commission at its meeting in Eureka on September 27 revealed anticipated income in excess of expenses of $1,686,515.

This is one-half the amount expected to be realized from the increase in fishing and hunting license stamps and tags and is not available to be budgeted by the department unless specifically authorized by the legislature. Thus, it is up to the sportsmen to let their assemblymen and senators know how they would like to see one-half of the new income spent, for more wardens, more fish or more game.

The income for the fiscal year will be obtained from the following sources according to calculations: from fishermen $6,539,333, from hunters $5,026,691, commercial fishermen $560,600 and miscellaneous sources $553,261 for a total of $12,679,885.

Cost of operations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1959 as estimated by the department's accountants show the following: for fish and the fishermen $2,408,768, ocean fisheries $893,911, for game and the hunters $2,448,489, warden or patrol force $2,394,489, overhead $2,673,136 and for capital investment $192,577 for a grand total of $11,011,370.

Anticipated expenses are approximately the same as currently being incurred which means no additional program or projects have been included. This will have to come from the one-half anticipated increased income derived from raising the cost of licenses. Total number of people to be on the fish and game payroll, likewise the same, that is 1,017.
